 erly cared for beats the California production in flavor and quality.
 Gardner takes care of his own herd, and all meat coming from his market is bound to be tender and sweet.

Meat immediately after being slaughtered is never tender and should be kept a day or two. In order to have it fresh after the expired time it should be kept in a cool place. M. C. Gardner sells meat both tender and fresh, as it is always surrounded by ice at a freezing temperature.

 can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRequals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

 you will cough and keep coughing relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it.

AN AGRICULTURAL FAIR,

And How California Talent Assists in Running It.

The annual Agricultural Fair held in this state are advertised all over the coast by means of large colored posters.

At the top of the poster is a picture representing a field of fast horses at the finish, and another depicts the wind-up of a trotting race.

At the bottom of the poster is another cut representing crowds of people gathered about bands of fat cattle, stallions, cabbages, pigs, pumpkins, etc.

When the California grangers see these pictures their eyes beam with delight and they swarm over here headed by Dan Dennison, Gore, and other leading patrons of agriculture in California, who interest the Sacramento and Bay View District Race Tracks.

They make a fine exhibition at the Fair with a splendid showing of improved sulkies, snaffle bits, sweat pads, leg boots, bridles, pig skin saddles, distance flags and other implements of farming industry in vogue in Lassen and Plumas counties California.

The first move is to quietly spread the report that all the fast nags that won the big races in Sacramento, are sick, lame, and knocked out and about to die of blind staggers, pleuro pneumonia and lung fever.

Then they send the cappers out to get the suckers in line. The suckers are right there in line, waiting for the cappers to come along.

When they get the cappers up town they get acquainted with them and begin to feed them on oysters, terrapin stews and champagne.

When they get the cappers good and mellow they pump them for points, and having secured all they need for the coming agricultural display, they slide out and post other suckers, who may safely be depended on to pass the valuable tip along.

Then the jockies get in and purchase a few pools on the horse the tip is on, while their secret agents are purchasing any quantity they can on the horse that is supposed to be lame, but is certain to win.

When the crowd of local turf alecks have put their money up at about five to one on the wrong horse, the word is given, and the big feature of the agricultural display begins.

The five to one horse gets left by a nose, and the California turf-men, drivers, stable boys, etc., who have reaped a big sucker harvest and have their pockets full of winning pool tickets, do not get them cashed, but go about with faces a foot long and make the jays think they have lost their last dollar.

Then the jays condole with the cappers and feel sorry, but the cappers brighten up and say:
 "Well, I'm willing to lose a few seads to see such time as that."

Then the callow gozlings who are trying to be bloods and have been blown in for their last dollar, go meandering about the track echoing the talk they hear, and finding consolation in the fast time, are patted on the back by the California turfmen and told that they lose like thoroughbreds, etc.
 And so the game goes on, and every year a fresh crop of geese get in to be plucked.

The State Legislature appropriates large sums to encourage this sort of business, and the California horsemen come over here and rake in the pot.

BANG! BANG!

The First Gun of the Battle is Touched Off.

The Walker Lake Bulletin of October 8th, says:
 The first gun of the campaign of 1890 was fired in Hawthorne last Thursday night by the Republican party.

According to the advertised announcement, there was a mass meeting. Owing to the sudden illness of Jas. A. Stevens, Mr.
 Sardis Summerfield, of Carson, was obliged to pack his grip at a moment's notice and accompany the candidates. However, he made a pleasing and impressive speech. He briefly reviewed the political issues of the day and gave a short resume of the candidates on the State ticket.

R. K. Coleord was introduced and spoke tersely on the course he would pursue if elected, pledged himself to do his utmost to further the mining interests by advocating liberal mining laws and also to labor for the reclamation of arid lands and the storage of water for irrigation. He further said that he was not an orator and that he was not a rich man; but though he was comparatively poor, there was no man on earth who owned any portion of him, or who could use him for any unjust purpose. Mr.
 Coleord was warmly applauded.

"Honest John" Egan spoke a few words. Said he hoped to be next Treasurer, and that he would guard the money as a vigilant officer should.

John E. Jones gave a brief resume of his labors while in office, and they certainly entitled him to re-election.

With three cheers for the ticket the first Republican meeting of the campaign closed.

The party visited Aurora on Friday and (Candelaria on Saturday. P. M. Bowler accompanied them as orator, Mr. Summerfield being obliged to return to Carson.

Death of John A. Johnson.
 News was received here yesterday of the death of John A. Johnson. He was a member of Ormsby Lodge, K. of P. No. 4, a Past Grand Chancellor and ex member of the Legislature.

It would be a good idea for the young men of Ormsby to get together as soon as possible and form a campaign club. This is a year for young men.

The late Governor Stevenson left about $35,000 worth of property. His sons, who only got $1, 000 apiece, will contest the will.

 receipt of a complimentary ticket,
